Making a Martyr of Old Brown.

The democratic press of the country, aided by Gov. Wise, are doing all they can to make a martyr of poor old Brown.

The miserable attempt to turn this unfortunate affair of a debilitated old man into party advantage has signally failed.

Thinking men clearly see that this mad freak of old Brown is but the carrying out of that state of things, which had its inception in the repeal of the Missouri Compromise.

United States Senator.

Certain Republican papers in Ohio are urging, for what reason we cannot see, a postponement of the election of an U. S. Senator.

Your correspondent has determined upon departing from his post, and will leave in a few days for San Francisco via Los Angeles and the scene of the Mountain Meadow massacre.

There is at this time in camp a party of about thirty, and they are all well, but the number of twenty-three, had been massacred. These people have given a statement to Judge Keeler under oath.

Trials of Cook.

CHICAGO, Nov. 9.—The trial of Cook attracted a great crowd in the court room, both yesterday and today.
